

Technology Agreement - Elementary School

The District's Acceptable Use Policy ("AUP") prevents unauthorized access and other unlawful activities by users online, prevents unauthorized disclosure of or access to sensitive information, and complies with the Children's Internet Protection Act ("CIPA"). The District will use technology protection measures to block or filter, to a practical extent, access to any material which the District, in its sole discretion, believes to be unlawful, obscene, pornographic, and/or harmful to minors over the network. The District reserves the right to monitor users' online activities and to access, review, copy, and store or delete any electronic communication or files and disclose them to others as it deems necessary. Educators may use the Internet during class directed group demonstrations with or without parental consent. Users should have no expectation of privacy regarding their use of District property, network and/or Internet access or files, including email.

Terms and Conditions of Use

1) Privileges - The use of the computer is a privilege, not a right, and inappropriate use may result in cancellation of those privileges.

- Inappropriate sites will initially be identified by Information Technology.
- Access to technology may be revoked for inappropriate use.
- Criminal actions may be pursued for illegal use of technology.

2) Responsibilities - Technology (including the use of the Internet) can be an exciting adventure for students. However, they must be responsible to:

- Report to an appropriate adult (parent, teacher, or administrator) any inappropriate use of the Internet or any destruction of District property; and
- Any monetary costs incurred from misuse of equipment.

3) Network Etiquette - Students are expected to abide by the generally accepted rules of network etiquette. These include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Never send, or encourage others to send, threatening or abusive messages;
- Do not bully or harass another person;
- You may be alone with your computer, but what you say and do can be viewed globally! Never swear, use profanity, vulgarities, or any other inappropriate language;
- Do not reveal any personal information, your home address or phone numbers, or those of others or your school site;
- Respect the rights of others. Do not do anything that degrades or disrupts the use of the network, either to the hardware, software, or others. Do not vandalize or destroy the data of another user. Do not use the school's network to gain unauthorized access;
- Do not attempt to bypass blocked Internet sites. If you feel a site has been blocked that you should be allowed to view, contact your teacher;
- Do not download, install, or run any programs unless specifically instructed by a teacher and then only under that teacher's supervision;
- Do not connect any devices into the computer without the consent of your teacher and then, only under the direct supervision of your teacher. This includes CD Roms, flash drives, iPods, PDAs, etc.; and
- All communications and information accessible via the network are subject to copyright law.

4) Warranty - Washoe County School District makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. Washoe County School District will not be responsible for any damages you suffer. This includes loss of data resulting from delays, non-deliveries, mis-deliveries, or service interruptions caused by its own negligence or your errors or omissions. Use of any information obtained via the Internet is at your own risk. Washoe County School District specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its services.
